Defects caused by chemical action or the presence of abrasive materials and defects arising following the operation beyond rated capacity or the improper use or application of any products shall not be considered defects within the scope of the Warranties and – to the extent permitted by law – JLG shall not be liable for the same. If any repairs or alterations are made or any parts are replaced during the applicable warranty periods by anyone other than JLG or an entity authorized by JLG in accordance with authorized JLG service manuals or with parts, accessories, or attachments other than authorized by JLG for use in its products, customer shall pay for such repairs or parts without recourse against JLG under the Warranties, and to the extent permitted by law, JLG shall be relieved of liability and responsibility for fulfilment of the Warranties with respect to such repairs, alterations, or replacements so made.

8.
